RESERVE BANK OF INDIA

Central Office

(Department of Accounts and Expenditure)

Bombay, the 7th March, 1970.

In pursuance of Rule 18 of the Rules made by the Government of India under Section 28 of the Public Debt Act, 1944 and published in the Gazette of India of the 20th April 1946 [as amended under Notification No. F. (8) (70)-B/52 dated the 29th April 1954] the following list (for the quarter ended 30th June 1969) is hereby advertised of securities lost etc. in respect of which prima facie grounds exist for believing that the securities have been lost and that the claim of applicants is just. All persons other than the respective claimants named below who have any claim upon these securities should communicate immediately with the Chief Accountant, Reserve Bank of India, Central Office, Department of Accounts and Expenditure, Central Debt Section, Bombay.

The list has been divided into two parts—Part 'A' being securities now advertised for the first time and Part 'B' the list of securities previously advertised.

PRESS COUNCIL OF INDIA

Explanatory Memorandum to the Press Council of India Employees' Contributory Provident Fund Regulations, 1970.

New Delhi, the 24th February 1970

Immediately on the formation of the Press Council of India under the Press Council Act, 1965, the Press Council of India employees' Contributory Provident Fund Regulations were drafted and action taken to seek prior approval of the Government of India as provided under Section 23 (b) of the Act. The Regulations have been finalised only in 1970 but in the meantime some subscribers as defined by proviso to Regulation 8(1) of the above-said Regulations became eligible to subscribe to the Fund. With a view to safeguarding their interests the necessity has arisen to give retrospective effect to these Regulations as stipulated under clause (2) of Regulation 1. It is however certified that the interest of no one would be prejudicially affected by reason of retrospective operation of these Regulations.

In exercise of the powers conferred by clause (b) of section 23 of the Press Council Act, 1965 (34 of 1965), the Press Council of India with the prior approval of the Central Government as required by the proviso to that section do hereby make the following regulations, namely :—

1. Short title and commencement.—(1) These regulations may be called the Press Council of India Employees' contributory Provident Fund Regulations, 1970.

(2) They shall be deemed to have come into force on the 1st January, 1967.

2. Definitions.—(1) In these regulations, unless the context otherwise requires,—

- (a) "Act" means the Press Council Act, 1965 (34 of 1965);
- (b) "Committee" means the Finance Committee of the Council constituted under section 8 of the Act;
- (c) "Continuous service" means uninterrupted service and includes periods of leave on average pay or half average pay, and of service preceding and following the period of extraordinary leave, but not the period of extraordinary leave;
- (d) "Council" means the Press Council of India established under section 3 of the Act;
- (e) "Emoluments" means pay, leave salary or subsistence grant, as defined in the Fundamental Rules and includes;
 - (i) dearness pay appropriate to pay, leave salary or subsistence grant, if admissible;
 - (ii) any wages paid by the Council to employees not remunerated by fixed monthly pay; and
 - (iii) any remuneration of the nature of pay received in respect of foreign service;
- (f) "Employee" means a person in the whole time service of the Council but does not include a person on deputation from the Government of India, State Governments local bodies and other autonomous organisations or one employed on daily wages;

(g) "Family means"—

- (i) in the case of a male subscriber, the wife or wives and children of the subscriber, and the widow or widows and children of a deceased son of the subscriber ;

Provided that the wife of a subscriber who is proved to the satisfaction of the Committee, to have been judicially separated from the subscriber or has ceased under the customary law of the community to which she belongs to be entitled to maintenance, shall be deemed to have ceased to be a member of the subscriber's family for the purpose of these regulations from such date as the Committee may determine, unless the subscriber subsequently intimates to the Committee in writing that she shall continue to be so regarded;

- (ii) in the case of a female subscriber, the husband and children of the subscriber and the widow or widows and children of a deceased son of the subscriber ;

Provided that the husband of a subscriber shall cease to be a member of her family for the purpose of these regulations if the subscriber intimates to the Committee in writing to that effect unless the subscriber subsequently cancels such intimation in writing.

NOTE : "Child" means a legitimate child, and includes an adopted child, where adoption is recognised by the personal law governing the subscriber;

(h) "Fund" means "the Press Council of India Employees' Contributory Provident Fund";

(i) "Secretary" means Secretary of the Council appointed under sub-section (1) of section 10 of the Act; and

(j) "Year" means a financial year.

2. All words and expressions used but not defined in these regulations and defined in the Provident Funds Act, 1925 (19 of 1925) or the Press Council Act, 1965 (34 of 1965) or the Press Council Rules, 1966 shall have the meanings respectively assigned to them in the said Acts or the said Rules as the case may be.

3. Constitution of the Fund.—(1) The Council shall constitute a fund called, "the Press Council of India Employees' Contributory Provident Fund".

(2) The Fund shall be maintained in rupees. All sums paid into the Fund under these regulations shall be credited in the books of the Council to an account named "The Press Council of India Employees' Contributory Provident Fund Account".

4. Administration of the Fund.—The Fund shall be administered by the Committee in accordance with these regulations and under the general supervision, direction and control of the Council.

5. Meeting of the Committee.—(1) The Chairman or, in his absence, a member of the Committee duly authorised by the Chairman in this behalf shall preside over the meetings of the Committee.

(2) The procedure at a meeting of the Committee shall be regulated by the person presiding over the meeting.

6. Investment.—The moneys belonging to the Fund shall be deposited in the State Bank of India or in any other Scheduled Bank as may be specified by the Committee or shall be invested in securities referred to in clauses (a) to (d) of section 20 of the Indian Trusts Act, 1882 (2 of 1882).

7. Accounts and audit.—The Accounts of the Fund shall be maintained in such form and manner as the Committee may determine and a statement of the accounts duly audited by the Comptroller and Auditor General of India or any other person duly authorised by him in this behalf shall be submitted every year to the Council.

8. Subscribers.—(1) Every employee, shall be a subscriber to the Fund from the beginning of the month following that in which he completes one year's continuous service or from the beginning of the month following that in which he completes his period of probation whichever is later.

Provided, however, where an officer retired from any civil or military department of Central Government or from service of any local Funds administered by Government or from any other institution may on re-employment in the Council be admitted to the Fund by the Committee from the date of his appointment in the Council.

(2) If an employee of the Council admitted to the benefit of the Fund was previously a subscriber to any other Contributory or non-Contributory Provident Fund, the amount of his subscriptions together with employer's contribution at his credit and interest thereon shall be transferred to his credit in the Fund with the consent of previous employer.

NOTE : (1) The provisions of the sub-regulation (2) shall not apply to a person who has retired and is subsequently re-employed with or without a break in service, or to a person who was holding the former appointment on contract.

NOTE : (2) The provisions of this regulation shall, however, apply to persons who are appointed without break whether temporarily or permanently to a post carrying the benefits of these regulations after resignation or retrenchment from service under another Department.

9. Nominations.—(1) A subscriber shall, as soon as possible after joining the Fund send to the Secretary a nomination conferring on one or more persons the right to receive the amount that may stand to his credit in the Fund, in the event of his death before that amount has become payable, or having become payable has not been paid :

Provided that if, at the time of making the nomination the subscriber has a family the nomination shall not be in favour of any person or persons other than the members of his family.

(2) If a subscriber nominates more than one person under sub-regulation (1) above he shall specify in the nomination the amount or share payable to each of the nominees in such manner as to cover the whole of the amount that may stand to his credit in the Fund at any time.

(3) Every nomination shall be in such one of the forms set forth in the Schedule as is appropriate in the circumstances.

(4) A subscriber may at any time cancel a nomination by sending a notice in writing to the Secretary :

Provided that he subscriber shall along with such notice send a fresh nomination made in accordance with the provisions of this regulation.

(5) A subscriber may provide in a nomination—

(i) in respect of any specified nominee, that in the event of his predeceasing the subscriber, the right conferred upon that nominee shall pass to such other person or persons as may be specified in the nomination, provided that such other person or persons shall, if the subscriber has other members of his family, be such other member or members;

(ii) that the nomination shall become invalid in the event of the happening of a contingency specified therein :

Provided that if at the time of making the nomination the subscriber has no family, he shall provide in the nomination that it shall become invalid in the event of his subsequently acquiring a family :

Provided further that if at the time of making the nomination the subscriber has only one member of the family, he shall provide in the nomination that the right conferred upon the alternate nominee under clause (i) shall become invalid in the event of his subsequently acquiring other member or members in his family.

(6) Immediately on the death of the nominee in respect of whom no special provision has been made in the nomination under clause (i) of sub-regulation (5) or on the occurrence of any event by reason of which the nomination becomes invalid in pursuance of clause (ii) of the sub-regulation (5) or the provisos thereto, the subscriber shall send to the Secretary a notice in writing cancelling the nomination together with a fresh nomination made in accordance with the provisions of this regulation.

(7) Every nomination made and every notice of cancellation given by a subscriber shall, to the extent that it is valid, take effect on the date on which it is received by the Secretary.

10. Subscribers' Account.—An account shall be opened in the name of each subscriber, in which shall be shown :

- (i) his subscriptions;
- (ii) contributions made by the Council under Regulation 14;
- (iii) interest due on such subscriptions and such contributions under regulation 15; and
- (iv) advances and withdrawals from the Fund.

11. Conditions of subscription.—(1) Every subscriber shall subscribe monthly to the Fund.

(2) A subscriber may, at his option, not subscribe during leave exceeding one month or during suspension.

Provided that a subscriber on resumption of duties after a period passed under suspension shall be allowed the option of paying in one sum, or in instalments, any sum not exceeding the maximum amount of arrears of subscriptions permissible for that period.

(3) The option under sub-regulation (2) shall be expressed by the subscriber giving a due and timely intimation in writing to the Secretary and in the absence of such intimation the subscriber shall be deemed to have opted to subscribe.

12. Rate of subscriptions.—(1) The rate of subscriptions in any year commencing on the 1st day of April shall be fixed by the subscriber himself subject to the following conditions, namely :—

- (a) it shall be expressed in whole rupees, and
- (b) the sum so expressed shall not be less than 8-1/3 (eight and one-third) per cent of his emoluments, and not more than his emoluments.

(2) The rate of subscription may be varied by the subscriber for any year commencing on the 1st day of April by giving an intimation in writing of such variation to the Secretary.

(3) The rate of subscription so fixed may be enhanced or reduced once at any time during the course of a year, but shall at no time be less than the minimum prescribed in clause (b) of sub-regulation (1).

Explanation—For the purposes of sub-regulation (1) the emoluments of a subscriber shall be—

- (i) in the case of a subscriber on duty in the Council on the first day of April of a year, this emoluments on that date,
- (ii) in the case of a subscriber on leave or on foreign service on the first day of April of a year, his emoluments on the day he was last on duty in the Council, and
- (iii) in the case of a subscriber who joins the service of the Council after the first day of April of a year, his emoluments on the date of his joining such service

13 Realisation of subscription—The subscription for any month shall be recovered by the Council from the emoluments of the subscriber for that month at the time of its payment :

Provided that if the subscriber draws emoluments for the month from a source other than the Council, the Council shall make arrangements to recover subscription from such source

14 Contribution by the Council—(1) The Council shall contribute to the account of each subscriber on the 31st day of March each year an amount equal to 8-1/3 (eight and one-third) per cent of the emoluments actually drawn by the subscriber during that year.

Provided that if a subscriber quits the service or dies during a year contribution shall be credited to his account for the period between the close of the preceding year and the date of the casualty,

Provided further that no contribution shall be payable in respect of any period for which the subscriber is permitted under the regulations not to or does not, subscribe to the Fund

(2) The amount of any contribution while the subscriber is on foreign service shall unless it is recovered from the foreign employer, be recovered from the subscriber

(3) The amount of contribution payable shall be rounded to the nearest whole rupee (fifty paise counting as the next higher rupee)

15 Interest—The Council shall credit on the 31st day of March each year to the account of a subscriber the interest on the amount to his credit in the Fund at such rate and in such manner as may be prescribed by the Council

16 Advances—An advance may be granted to a subscriber from the amount standing to his credit in his account at the discretion of the Secretary, subject to the following conditions

(a) No advance shall be granted unless the Secretary is satisfied that the subscriber's pecuniary circumstances justify it, and that the advance will be expended for any of the following purposes, namely —

- (i) to pay expenses incurred in connection with the prolonged illness and disability of the subscriber or of any person actually dependent on him, including travelling expenses,
- (ii) to meet the cost of higher education including where necessary the travelling expenses of the subscriber or any person actually dependent on him in the following cases namely —
 - (a) for education outside India for an academic, technical, professional or vocational course beyond the High School stage, and

(b) for any medical, engineering or other technical or specialised course in India beyond the High School stage, provided that the course of study is for not less than three years

(iii) to pay obligatory expenses on a scale appropriate to the subscriber's status which, by customary usage, the subscriber has to incur in connection with marriages, funerals or other ceremonies of persons actually dependent on him which, by his religion, it is incumbent on him to perform.

Provided that the condition of actual dependence shall not apply in the case of a son or a daughter of the subscriber

(b) an advance shall not, save for special reasons to be recorded in writing exceed the subscriber's emoluments for three months or two-thirds of the total amount of subscription and interest thereon standing to the credit of the subscriber in his account, whichever is less and shall in no case exceed the full amount of the latter

(c) An advance shall not, save for special reasons to be recorded in writing, be granted till final repayment of previous advance, together with interest thereon has been made

Provided that the advance applied for under special reasons under clause (b) and/or clause (c) shall not be sanctioned except with the prior approval of the Chairman

17 Recovery of advances—(1) An advance shall be recovered from the subscriber in such number of equal monthly instalments as the Secretary may direct; but such number shall not be less than twelve unless the subscriber so elects and more than twenty-four. In special cases where the amount of advance exceeds three months' pay of the subscriber under clause (b) of regulation 16, the Secretary may fix such number of instalments to be more than twenty-four but in no case more than thirty-six.

(2) A subscriber may at his option make repayment in a smaller number of instalments than that specified by the Secretary

(3) Each instalment shall be a number of whole rupees, the amount of the advance being raised or reduced, if necessary to admit of the fixation of such instalments.

(4) Recovery of each monthly instalment shall be made from the emoluments of the subscriber for the month at the time of its payment

(5) The recovery of instalments shall commence from the month following the emolument of the month in which the advance is granted

(6) It shall be competent for the Secretary to direct that such instalments shall not be recovered during leave or during suspension of the subscriber.

(7) If more than one advance remain or are outstanding for recovery, recovery of all the advances shall be made simultaneously unless the Chairman otherwise directs for special reasons to be recorded in writing.

(8) After the amount of an advance has been fully repaid, interest on the advance, at such rate as may be fixed by the Committee, shall be recovered in the same manner as the amount of advance in such number of instalments as the Secretary may specify

18. Withdrawal from the Fund—Subject to the conditions specified in regulation 16, withdrawals may be sanctioned by the Chairman at any time after the completion of twenty years of service (including broken periods of service, if any) of a subscriber or within ten years before the date of superannuation, whichever is earlier from the amount of subscriptions and interest thereon standing to the credit of the subscriber in the Fund, for one or more of the following purposes, namely :—

- (a) Meeting the cost of higher education including where necessary, the travelling expenses of any child of the subscriber actually dependent on him in the following cases, namely :—
 - (i) for education outside India for academic technical, professional or vocational course beyond the High School stage, and
 - (ii) for any medical, engineering or other technical or specialised course in India beyond the High School stage, provided that the course of study is for not less than three years.
- (b) Meeting the expenditure in connection with the marriage of the subscriber's sons or daughters, and if he has no daughter, of any other female relation dependent on him.
- (c) Meeting the expenses in connection with the illness, including where necessary, the travelling expenses, of the subscriber or any person actually dependent on him.
- (d) Building or acquiring a suitable house for his residence including the cost of the site or repaying any outstanding amount on account of loan expressly taken for this purpose before the date of receipt of the application for withdrawal but not earlier than twelve months of that date, or reconstructing or making additions or alterations to a house already owned or acquired by a subscriber.
- (e) Purchasing a house-site or repaying any outstanding amount on account of loan expressly taken for this purpose before the date of receipt of the application for the withdrawal but not earlier than twelve months of that date.
- (f) For constructing a house on a site purchased utilising the sum withdrawn under clause (e) :

Provided that a subscriber who has availed himself of any assistance for house building purposes from any other Government source, shall not be eligible for the grant of final withdrawal under clauses (d), (e) and (f) except for the express purpose of repayment of any loan taken as such assistance.

19. Conditions for withdrawal.—(1) Any sum withdrawn by a subscriber at any one time for one or more of the purposes specified in regulation 18 from the amount standing to his credit in the Fund shall not ordinarily exceed one-half of the amount of subscriptions and interest thereon standing to the credit of the subscriber in the Fund or six months' emoluments whichever is less. The Chairman may, however, sanction the withdrawal of an amount in excess of this limit upto three-fourths of the amount of subscriptions and interest thereon standing to the credit of the subscriber in the Fund having due regard to (i) the object for which the withdrawal is being made (ii) the status of the subscriber and (iii) the amount of subscriptions and interest thereon standing to the credit of the subscriber in the Fund.

(2) A subscriber who has been permitted to withdraw money from the Fund under regulation 18 shall satisfy the Secretary within a reasonable period as may be specified by him that the money has been utilised for the purpose for which it was withdrawn, and if he fails to do so, the whole of the sum so withdrawn, or so much thereof as has not been applied for the purpose for which it was withdrawn shall forthwith be repaid in one lump sum together with interest thereon at the rate determined under regulation 15 by the subscriber to the Fund, and in default of such payment, it shall be ordered by the Secretary to be recovered from his emoluments either in a lump sum or in such number of monthly instalments, as may be determined by the Chairman.

(3) A subscriber who has been permitted under clause (d), (e) and (f) of regulation 18 to withdraw money from the amount of subscription together with interest thereon standing to his credit in the Fund shall not part with the possession of the house so built or acquired or house-site so purchased, by way of sale, mortgage, gift exchange, or lease for a term exceeding three years, without the previous permission of the Secretary. He shall submit a declaration not later than the 31st day of December of every year to the effect that the house or as the case may be, the house-site continues to be in his possession and shall, if so required, produce before the Secretary on or before the date specified by him in that behalf the original sale-deed and other documents on which his title to the property is based.

If at any time before retirement he parts with the possession of the house or house-site without obtaining previous permission of the Secretary, the sum withdrawn by him shall forthwith be repaid in one lump sum together with interest thereon at the rate determined under regulation 15 by the subscriber to the Fund and in default of such repayment, it shall be ordered by the Secretary to be recovered from his emoluments either in a lump sum or in such number of monthly instalments, as may be determined by the Chairman.

20. Conversion of an advance into a withdrawal.—A subscriber who has already drawn or may draw in future an advance under regulation 16 for any of the purposes specified in clauses (a), (b) and (c) of regulation 18 may convert, at his discretion, by written request addressed to the Secretary the balance outstanding against it into a final withdrawal on his satisfying the conditions laid down in regulations 18 and 19.

21. Final withdrawal of accumulations in the Fund.—When a subscriber quits the service, the amount standing to his credit in the Fund shall, subject to any deduction under regulation 23 become payable to him.

Provided that a subscriber, who has been dismissed from the service and is subsequently reinstated in the service, shall, if required to do so by Chairman, repay any amount paid to him from the Fund in pursuance of this regulation, with interest thereon at the rate provided in regulation 15 by instalments or otherwise, by recovery from his emoluments or otherwise, as may be directed by the Chairman. The amount so repaid shall be credited to his account in the Fund, the part which represents his subscriptions and interest thereon and the part which represents the Council's contribution with interest thereon, being accounted for in the manner provided in regulation 10.

22. Procedure on death of subscriber.—Subject to any deduction under regulation 23, on the death of a subscriber before the amount standing to his credit has become payable, or where the amount has become payable, before payment has been made.

(i) When the subscriber leaves a family—

- (a) if a nomination made by the subscriber in accordance with the provisions of regulation 9 in favour of a member or members of his family subsists, the amount standing to his credit in the Fund or the part thereof to which the nomination relates, shall become payable to his nominee or nominees in the proportion specified in the nomination,
- (b) if no such nomination in favour of a member or members of the family of the subscriber subsists, or if such nomination relates only to a part of the amount standing to his credit in the Fund, the whole amount or the part thereof to which the nomination does not relate as the case may be, shall, notwithstanding any nomination purporting to be in favour of any person or persons other than a member or members of his family become payable to the members of his family in equal shares :

Provided that no share shall be payable—

- (1) sons who have attained majority;
- (2) sons of a deceased son who have attained majority;
- (3) married daughters whose husbands are alive;
- (4) married daughters of a deceased son whose husbands are alive;

if there is any member of the family other than those specified in clauses (1), (2), (3) and (4).

Provided also that the widow or widows and the child or children of a deceased son shall receive between them in equal parts only the share which that son would have received if he had survived the subscriber and had been exempted from the provisions of clause (1) of the first proviso.

NOTE :—Any sum payable under these regulations to a member of the family of a subscriber vests in such member under sub-section (2) of section 3 of the Provident Funds Act, 1925.

- (ii) When the subscriber leaves no family, if a nomination made by him in accordance with the provisions of regulation 9 in favour of any person or persons subsists, the amount standing to his credit in the Fund or the part thereof to which the nomination relates, shall become payable to his nominee or nominees in the proportion specified in the nomination.

NOTE 1. When a nominee is a dependent of the subscriber as defined in clause (c) of section 2 of the Provident Funds Act, 1925, the amount vests in such nominee under sub-section (2) of section 3 of that Act.

NOTE 2. When the subscriber leaves no family and no nomination made by him in accordance with the provisions of regulation 9 subsists, or if such nomination relates only to part of the amount standing to his credit in the Fund, the relevant provisions of clause (b) and of sub-clause (ii) of clause (c) of sub-section (1) of section 4 of the Provident Funds Act, 1925, are applicable to the whole amount or the part thereof to which the nomination does not relate.

23. Deductions.—Subject to the condition that no deduction may be made which reduces the credit by more than the amount of any contribution by Council with interest thereon credited under regulations 14 and 15, before the amount standing to the credit of a subscriber in the Fund is paid out of the Fund, the Chairman may direct the deduction therefrom and payment to the Council of—

- (a) any amount, if a subscriber has been dismissed from the service for grave misconduct ;

Provided that, if the order of dismissal is subsequently cancelled, the amount so deducted shall, on his reinstatement in the service, be replaced to his credit in the Fund;

- (b) any amount, if a subscriber resigns his employment under Council within 5 years of the commencement thereof otherwise than by reason of superannuation or a declaration by competent medical authority that he is unfit for further service.

- (c) any amount due under a liability incurred by the subscriber to Council.

NOTE.—For the purpose of clause (b) of this regulation, the period of 5 years shall be reckoned from the commencement of the subscriber's continuous service under Council.

24. Manner of payment of amount in the Fund.—(1) When the amount standing to the credit of a subscriber in the Fund, or the balance thereof after any deduction under regulation 23 becomes payable, it shall be the duty of the Secretary after satisfying himself, when no such deduction has been directed under that regulation, that no deduction is to be made, to make payment on receipt of a written application in this behalf as provided in sub-regulation (3).

(2) If the person to whom, under these regulations, any amount is to be paid, is a lunatic for whose estate a manager has been appointed in this behalf under the Indian Lunacy Act, 1912 (4 of 1912) the payment will be made to such manager, and not to the lunatic.

(3) Any person who desires to claim payment under this regulation shall send a written application in that behalf to the Secretary. Payment of amounts withdrawn shall be made in India only. The persons to whom the amounts are payable shall make their own arrangements to receive payment in India.

NOTE.—When the amount standing to the credit of a subscriber has become payable under regulation 21 or 22 the Secretary shall authorise prompt payment of that portion of the amount standing to the credit of a subscriber in regard to which there is no dispute or doubt, the balance being adjusted as soon after as may be.

25. Number of account to be quoted at the time of payment of subscription.—When paying subscription in India either by deduction from emoluments or in cash, a subscriber shall quote the number of his account in the Fund already communicated to him by the Secretary.

NOTE.—It shall be the duty of the Secretary to communicate to the subscriber any change in the number assigned to his account.

26. Annual statement of account to be supplied to subscriber.—(1) As soon as possible after the 31st March of each year, the Secretary shall send to each subscriber a statement of his account in the Fund, showing the opening balance as on the 1st April of the year, the total amount credited or debited during the year, the total amount of interest credited as on the 31st March of the year and the closing balance on that date. The Secretary shall attach to the statement of account an enquiry whether the subscriber—

- (a) desires to make any alteration in any nomination made under regulation 9;
- (b) has acquired a family in cases where the subscriber has made no nomination in favour of a member of his family under the proviso to sub-regulation (1) of regulation 9.

(2) Subscribers should satisfy themselves as to the correctness of the annual statement, and errors should be brought to the notice of the Secretary within three months from the date of receipt of the statement.

(3) The Secretary shall, if required by subscriber, once, but not more than once in a year, inform the subscriber of the total amount standing to his credit in the Fund at the end of the last month for which his account has been written up.

GENERAL

27. Relaxation of the provisions of the regulations in individual cases.—When the Chairman is satisfied that the operation of any of these regulations causes or is likely to cause undue hardship to a subscriber, he may, notwithstanding anything contained in these regulations deal with the case of such subscriber in such manner as may appear to him to be just and equitable.

28. Interpretation.—If any question arises relating to the interpretation of these regulations, it shall be referred to the Committee whose decision thereon shall be final.
